

14. Preservation, restoration, and heritage

University of Murcia

Test

1. The heritage is always tangible:
 - a. True.
 - b. False.
2. Heritage, according to the human activity, can be...
 - a. Historical.
 - b. Industrial.
 - c. Documentary.
 - d. All are correct.
3. Which of the following is NOT a correct list of archives according to the origin of their documentation:
 - a. National, nobiliary and private.
 - b. Protocols, military and private.
 - c. Private, military and familiar.
 - d. National, intermediate and nobiliary.
4. What is the principle of natural order?
 - a. Files should go from old to new.
 - b. Files should go from small to big.
 - c. Files can be changes according to their natural properties.
 - d. Files should be kept in the order they had according to their production.
5. If an institution only has electronic and digitalised documents can it be considered a library?
 - a. No, a library should have books and dust.
 - b. Yes, as long as it performs the tasks of a library.
 - c. No, it can be mixed.
6. What are the functions of a museum?
 - a. Collecting, buying, selling, researching and educating.
 - b. Collecting, conserving, researching, disseminating and educating.
 - c. Collecting, conserving, buying, selling and educating.
 - d. None of them is correct.
7. The ICOM is:
 - a. The International Council of Maritime affairs.
 - b. The International Council of Museums.
 - c. The International College of Maritime affairs.
 - d. The International College of Museums.
8. How many degrees of Heritage intervention are there?
 - a. Two.

- b. Three.
 - c. Four.
 - d. Many.
9. Is it recommendable to extract heritage from the bottom of the sea?
- a. Yes, it is better preserved in a museum.
 - b. No, because of the underwater environment usually preserves it.
 - c. No, because it can be stolen.
 - d. Yes, because it can be stolen.
10. Since when the conservation and dissemination of cultural heritage took on an international legal status?
- a. Since 1972, with the Convention on the Protection of the World Cultural and Natural Heritage.
 - b. Since 1968, with the Convention of the Maritime Heritage.
 - c. Since 1982, with the Convention of Montego Bay.
 - d. It does not have such status.